RUSSIA SAID TO HAVE OFFERED TO AID CZECHS

TWO FUGITIVES OUTDISTANCED POLO OFFICER

Hugh McKay, Formerly of Dixon, One of Pair in Wild Night Chase

Hugh McKay, III, 26, of Polo, formerly of Dixon, and Eugene Cox, 18, of Rock Falls, who escaped from the Vandavia state prison farm September 9, were objects of a police hunt throughout northwestern Illinois today, following a wild chase from Polo to Sterling last night, in which the two, in a stolen car, outdistanced Night Marshal L. W. Cupp of Polo.

McKay, who was sentenced to Vandavia sometime ago on a bad check charge, telephoned his wife at 7:45 P. M. after he arrived in Polo and told her that he would see her before he left the state "for good." His wife immediately notified Night Police Officer L. W. Cupp.

Auto Breaks Down.
Cupp came upon McKay and Cox and started to pursue them. He followed the men in the squad car to Sterling, where they turned onto route 88, which leads to Savanna. There Cupp's automobile broke down.

Although unable to overtake the pair, Cupp said he pulled up close enough to observe several bullets he fired had penetrated the rear of their machine. Bullets broke the rear window and tail light.

Sterling police, notified by Cupp, attempted to take up the chase, but were unable to locate the two fugitives, who were riding in a stolen car. State highway police in Savanna and other nearby cities were notified to search for the men.

State Highway Police Officers Harry Blackburn of Lanark and Leo Hill of Freeport were stationed in Polo last night to prevent McKay from seeing his wife. The fugitives were seen at the event he returned to Polo.

Wife Fears for Life.
Mrs. McKay and her father, with whom she and her two children have been living, expressed the fear that McKay might harm her if he sees her. The father told the state highway officers that McKay had threatened to kill his wife.

State highway police said they learned that the two fugitives had stolen a Chevrolet automobile in Vandavia after they had escaped from the prison farm and later had abandoned it for a Dodge sedan, which they were driving when they reached Polo.

In Freeport Holdup.
Chief of Police Adam H. Wikley of Freeport said today he believed two robbers who held up a filling station just outside the city limits there this morning and escaped with $50 were McKay and Cox. The chief said the men answered the description of the pair, one of whom flourished a revolver in the hold-up. The robbers were riding in a Dodge car which carried license plates issued to a Ford car owned by K. R. Gorff of Grayville, Ill.

Grand Jury Returns But One Indictment

The grand jury for the September term of the Circuit court completed its duties in a few hours yesterday, returning but one indictment, B. A. Hartley of Viola township was foreman of the body and Assistant State's Attorney Gerald Jones submitted one case for consideration. After the inspection of the county jail and court house property yesterday afternoon, the grand jury filed its report with Judge Albert H. Manus of Freeport, who is presiding at the September term. One indictment containing four counts, charging John Reynolds of this city with embezzling funds of the L. C. Mercantile company, was returned. Reynolds is to be arraigned before Judge Manus Wednesday.

Judge Manus will call the list of cases appearing on the docket at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and the trial list for the term will be completed.

Wimbledon Slayer Sentenced to Die

London, Sept. 20. — (AP) — George Brain, 27-year-old truck driver, was sentenced to death today for slaying Mrs. Muriel Atkins, whose clubbed and slashed body was found near Wimbledon's famed center tennis court July 14. Brain, arrested July 25, confessed he killed Mrs. Atkins with an automobile crank because he said she threatened to blackmail him. He said he took the body to Wimbledon in a truck.

Grave Justice

Chicago, Sept. 20. — (AP) — The rah-rah boys at Glenbard and Wheaton community high schools, who turned their barrage of ripe tomatoes, stale cabbage and fruit upon policemen when they interfered with a football celebration, wondered today why justice is so grave and decorous.

Police Magistrate Frank E. Herick, sitting at Wheaton, fined four boys $1 and costs last night on charges of disorderly conduct and continued the cases of 10 others.

The 14 were seized Thursday night when police tried to disperse the students during their "tomato fight" which annually precedes the Wheaton-Glenbard football game. The youths forgot their rivalry for a time, and jointly aimed their fruits and vegetables at the officers. Tear gas, night sticks and streams of water from the hose of firemen broke up the junior riot.

TWO CONFESS TO KILLING STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Chicago State's Attorney
Withholds Names As He Seeks Two More

Chicago, Sept. 20. — (AP) — State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney announced today two men had confessed the slaying Dec. 29, 1935, of State Representative Albert J. Prignano at the threshold of his home in the "Bloody Twentieth" ward.

"We are withholding the names of the men," Courtney said, "until they are found nothing more will be said about this matter."

The prosecutor declined to comment on reports in the criminal courts building that the men had confessed killing Prignano in a robbery, but that police were not completely satisfied with this explanation.

Prignano, Democratic committee-man of the Twentieth ward and representative of the Seventeenth Senatorial district, was shot dead by three men as he returned home from a family party with his wife, 8-year-old son and his mother-in-law.

Victim Robbed
Witnesses said one of the three killers told Prignano "This is a stickup," and then several shots were fired into his body. The trio then took Prignano's wallet and a diamond ring and fled.

Police said at the time that despite the holdup aspects of the assassination they would investigate Prignano's political activities to determine if he incurred any enemies.

The "Bloody Twentieth" had been a region of election terrorism, bombings, beatings and personal and political feuds for almost 50 years. In 1921, thirteen men were killed in fighting which police attributed to attempts of two political factions to gain control of the district.

Scarface Al Capone, Frank Nitti and lesser gangdom names were linked with the turbulent history of the ward.

Some six months after Prignano's death another state legislator was assassinated. He was State Rep. John M. Bolton, 35, killed July 9, 1936, Democrat from the Second district. He was slain at Harrison street and Wastanaw avenue in gangland fashion, as he drove his automobile, the carload of killers pulled alongside and fired a shotgun charge from a range of four or five feet into Bolton's head and neck.

WANTS SPECIFIC CALL

Washington, Sept. 20. — (AP) — Senator Nye (R. N. D.) predicted today congress would pass a government reorganization bill next year if President Roosevelt submitted proposals calling for specific changes in certain departments.

Stranger Meets Death Under I. C. Freight Train Here Monday Night

An unknown transient met instant death last evening about 6 o'clock at the Illinois Central yards, just south of the Seventh street crossing, when he fell beneath the wheels of a south bound freight train which was switching in the yards. Joe Zampana, flagman at the Seventh street crossing, was the only witness to the tragedy and he stated that the transient attempted to board the moving train and fell between the cars. His body was badly mangled and he was killed almost instantly.

The body was removed to the Jones funeral home upon the order of Dr. Kenyon B. Segner, coroner, and an inquest was set for 4 o'clock this afternoon. Dr. Segner conducted a thorough examination of the effects found upon the body last evening and

PROSPECTS FOR SWIMMING POOL HERE BRIGHTER

Cooperation of Loveland
Trustees With Park Board Cited

The prospects for a public, outdoor swimming pool for Dixon are considerably improved, due to a disposition on the part of Trustees F. X. Newcomer, Homer Senneff and J. U. Weyant of the Loveland estate to cooperate in meeting this public need by supplying, from the estate of Mrs. Emma Loveland a substantial sum, to be augmented by the Dixon Park board and matched by government funds from the P. W. A. for the construction of a modern pool.

The committee of Dixonites representing the Loveland trustees, the city council and the park district named at a meeting called at the suggestion of Commissioner Cal Tyler, which went to Chicago and conferred with the WPA officials, learned that government funds might be available if a sum of money representing 55 per cent of the cost of the project was provided by the city of Dixon or the Dixon Park district. Upon receiving this information the trustees of the Loveland Community house, finding that as a non-tax raising body they could not get a government grant to enable them to build a swimming pool themselves, have taken the public spirited attitude that they will ask the court for permission to donate a substantial amount of money (yet to be determined and depending upon the total cost of the project) if the Dixon Park district can find a way to provide what additional money is necessary to meet the government.

The park board has been in conference and the city administration is being consulted and necessary preliminary details are being worked out.

A joint meeting of the various boards that was scheduled for this evening has been postponed until a complete plan can be presented.

Mrs. James Duffy Of May Township Dies Suddenly

Mrs. James Duffy, 73, of May township, died quite suddenly shortly after midnight last night at her home about eight miles southwest of Amboy. The body was removed to the Staples mortuary in this city, where Dr. Kenyon B. Segner will conduct an inquest this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Meat of Day's News Told in Paragraphs For Our Readers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Czechoslovakia, pressed by Great Britain and France to surrender her Sudeten German areas to Adolf Hitler, stalled for time today while reports from Geneva said Soviet Russia had promised support if she would resist efforts to take the areas by force.

Meanwhile, Premier Bela Imredi and Foreign Minister Koloman von Kanya of Hungary conferred with Reichsfuehrer Hitler at his retreat on Obersalzberg, according to a semi-official announcement.

Neither Russian nor Czechoslovak sources would confirm the Geneva reports officially, but Czechoslovak sources said they were "not improbable."

The Czechoslovak cabinet was said to have found "unacceptable" the British-French plan to cede Sudetenland to Germany, but was ready to use provisions of the plan as a basis for further negotiations. The Soviet press assailed the plan.

The need for quick action was emphasized by a series of clashes on the German-Czechoslovak frontier.

The Czechoslovak government said three attacks on frontier customs houses had been made by bands of men who crossed the boundary from Germany armed with machine-guns, hand grenades and pistols. Two Czechoslovak officers were reported wounded.

German reports, on the other hand, charged that Czechoslovaks had been the aggressors in several border clashes. The official German news agency, DNB, said 17 German frontier guards were wounded in one of the clashes and reported there was another engagement between Czechoslovak frontier detachments and deserting Sudeten Germans.

Official circles in Berlin declared that if the Czechoslovak government could not control its border forces Germany might regard the incidents as "of the same nature as a cause for war." They said "the most severe representations" would be made to Prague if details of the reports proved to be true.

Great Britain was said to have decided she would not fight under any circumstances and France asserted she would not fight without Britain's support.

The British prime minister, Neville Chamberlain, was expected to take his "expedient surrender" back to Hitler tomorrow, but there were indications he would do so without the full support of his people. Opposition arguments were that he was surrendering within a short time.

Beier Bakery Truck Over Embankment

One of the fleet of trucks belonging to the Beier bakery and operated by Leonard Woodyatt, pitched over a 75-foot embankment at the north end of Ashland avenue in the east end of the city yesterday afternoon, and was badly damaged. One truck had stalled in the mud and the second truck was making ready to rescue the first one.

While the driver was looking over the ground, the brakes on the second truck released and the heavy machine gained momentum as it approached the crest of the high embankment and rolled over. New York, Sept. 20. — (AP) — Bernard Baruch, the financier, refused last night to confirm reports he had returned from Europe at the request of President Roosevelt to organize a system of national defense in American industry as a precautionary measure.

Danger of Frost Damage to Crops in Middle West Lifted for Time

Chicago, Sept. 20. — (AP) — The danger of frost damage to crops was lifted temporarily in most of the middle west today when the mercury rose under clearing skies.

Cricket Relief

Waukegan, Ill., Sept. 20. — (AP) — A Waukegan lawyer thinks it just isn't cricket if the city council doesn't do something about the crickets in town.

The question of cricket relief was raised by the attorney in a letter to Alderman William Schaufel.

Alderman Schaufel said his correspondent complained that crickets had invaded several homes and that their constant chirping constituted a nuisance.

The council took note of the complaint last night. Every-one seemed agreed that crickets might get in one's hair figuratively if not literally but no one knew how to eliminate crickets, nor even if such action were legal.

Pending an opinion from the council's legal advisers on the legality of an anti-cricket drive, the cricket racket appears destined to remain in certain Waukegan homes.

Western Trains Crash; Ten Die, Scores Injured

San Jose, Calif., Sept. 20. — (AP) — Ten persons were killed and at least 77 injured today in the collision of two Southern Pacific passenger trains on a siding at Tortuga, a switching point 11 miles east of here.

Officials said after a preliminary investigation that a faulty switch apparently shunted the westbound Argonaut onto the siding where the eastbound California waited for it to pass.

The dead:
Florence A. Tator, Rhinebeck, N. Y.

Mrs. E. W. Hall, Loma Linda, Calif.

Mrs. C. A. Hall, Loma Linda, Calif.

Robert N. Richardson, engineer of the Argonaut, Los Angeles.

P. E. Martin, fireman, California, Los Angeles.

H. R. Parsons, fireman of the Argonaut, Los Angeles.

Three unidentified girls.

One unidentified woman.

Officials Unhurt
Two high officials of the Southern Pacific, J. H. Dyer, vice president, and W. H. Kirkbride, chief engineer for the system, escaped injury. They were riding in a private car on the rear of the Argonaut. They immediately took charge of the situation.

Relief trains were sent to the scene from Niland and Yuma, Ariz., with doctors, nurses and medical supplies.

None of the cars of the Argonaut left the rails, although its engine was overturned.

Prague's Reply to Plan Dispatched Today; Contents Secret

Geneva, Sept. 20. — (AP) — Czechoslovakia was reported today to have received a Soviet Russian promise of support if Germany tried to seize Sudetenland but to have found in Rumania a possible barrier to such aid.

Sources close to the Russian delegation to the League of Nations said Moscow had informed Prague that if Czechoslovakia would resist any German attack she would receive Soviet support.

BRITISH-FRENCH PEACE PROPOSAL IS THREATENED

Prague's Reply to Plan
Dispatched Today;
Contents Secret

Geneva, Sept. 20. — (AP) — Czechoslovakia was reported today to have received a Soviet Russian promise of support if Germany tried to seize Sudetenland but to have found in Rumania a possible barrier to such aid.

Sources close to the Russian delegation to the League of Nations said Moscow had informed Prague that if Czechoslovakia would resist any German attack she would receive Soviet support.

Russia, however, was described as declaring she could not guarantee a means of getting Soviet men and munitions into Czechoslovakia, and Rumania took the position that she could not guarantee to permit Soviet troop movements through Rumania.

Both Poland and Rumania separate Soviet Russia and Czechoslovakia, but Czechoslovaks took for granted that Poland would refuse to become a corridor for Russian troops and talked to the Rumanians.

A week ago Rumania was described as having assured Russia of a right-of-way for Soviet troops on their way to help Prague.

Plans Threatened

London, Sept. 20. — (AP) — An outbreak of German-Czechoslovak frontier incidents and a reported Soviet Russian promise to help Prague resist attack threatened today to wreck the British-French plan for settling the conflict peacefully.

As border hostilities spread, Great Britain was said to lack official information of the Czechoslovak government's stand on the joint British-French proposal to let Germany have the Sudeten areas.

The answer was said to be delayed by the weight of the decision thrust upon the Czechoslovak cabinet and by Prague's diplomatic negotiations, which appeared to be mainly with Soviet Russia.

"Inner Cabinet" Met
In Geneva, there were reports that Moscow was supporting Prague.

During the day Prime Minister Chamberlain met with the "inner cabinet" which consists of Chamberlain, Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax, Home Secretary Sir Samuel Hoare, and Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

British officials maintained silence as to details of the British-French peace plan. Chamberlain is expected to take this "expedient surrender" back to Chancellor Hitler tomorrow at the meeting, at Godesberg, the Rhine.

Despite the apparent decision of the British and French governments to stand aloof there was obvious concern at the possibility their plan might fail to prevent an explosion.

Prague's Reply Sent

Prague, Sept. 20. — (AP) — The Czechoslovak government announced tonight it had delivered its reply to Britain and France on their proposals to end the European crisis and that it considered the way was left open to further "diplomatic negotiations."

"The Czechoslovak government communicated this evening to the British and French ministers in Prague a note in which is set forth its attitude to proposals brought forward by the British and French governments."

"The attitude adopted makes possible further diplomatic negotiations in the spirit of conciliation which the Czechoslovak government has always shown."

An unofficial but informed source said the note "is acceptance in principle but makes a number of important reservations."

The note replied to communications delivered Monday by the British and French ministers, embodying the agreement reached by the premiers of Britain and France in London Sunday.

Troops Alert
London dispatches said the proposals included cession of Czechoslovakia's Sudeten areas to Germany and other terms.

The communique was issued as thousands of Czechoslovak troops were ordered on the alert in the Sudeten area to deal with incursions from across the German border such as were reported earlier today.

Anti-aircraft gun crews around the president's palace and government buildings kept watch for enemy bombers while the Czechoslovak cabinet continued its fate-

Jacob H. Huyetts, Lee County Residents Since '76, Wed Sixty-Seven Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Huyett, residents of Lee county since the fall of 1876, will celebrate the sixty-seventh anniversary of their marriage tomorrow at their home, 721 South Galena avenue. Because Mr. Huyett has been failing in health since last spring, no elaborate celebration is planned, though there will be a homecoming for the couple's eight children, and from 2 to 4 P. M. the couple will receive their friends at an open house reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Huyett were married Sept. 21, 1871, in Womelsdorf, Lebanon county, Pennsylvania. The Rev. Thomas Leinbaugh, pastor of the Reformed church, read the ceremony at his home. Mrs. Huyett's wedding gown was of brown silk rep with a satin-trimmed peplum, and she still has the skirt.

Mrs. Huyett, the former Miss Emma C. Hain, daughter of Frederick and Sarah (Hain) Hain, will be 84 years old on Jan. 13. Her husband, a son of John and Elizabeth (Hain) Huyett, will observe his eighty-eighth anniversary, Dec. 1. Their mothers, whose family name was borne by a large number of residents in the vicinity of Womelsdorf, were twins.

There is also a church, Hain's (St. John's) church, near Wernersville, named for its founders, who were ancestors of Mrs. Huyett. The earliest Hain's church was a log structure, and has since been enlarged and rebuilt to accommodate a congregation of about 1,400. Late last month, the Huyetts had word of a reunion held at the church for descendants of George and Veronica Hain.

Mrs. Huyett had two sisters and three brothers, though only one sister, Mrs. Mary Ludwig of Wernersville is still living. Mrs. Ludwig and her mother visited the Huyetts in this county some 50 years ago. Mr. Huyett has one brother and a sister, Henry Huyett of Wernersville, and Mrs. Kate Hain of Redding, Pa.

At the time the Huyetts were married, he was a farmer, though the couple went to housekeeping in Wernersville, where he learned the trade of a butcher. Older residents of this county will remember that he made regular trips through the neighborhood with fresh meat when the family resided in the country between Nachusa and Franklin Grove at the time the couple came to Lee county.

Mrs. Huyett takes pleasure in talking about her childhood home, a huge house built by her grandfather, Benjamin Hain, from stones gathered from the nearby mountainside. The house, which has since been sold and is now an asylum, nestles in the foothills of the South mountains. Mrs. Huyett's father was a miller, and she remembers wading with her sisters and brothers in the mill stream, fed by the crystal clear waters of nearby springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Huyett came to Lee county on Oct. 28, 1876. They formerly resided in China and Nachusa townships, and have lived at their present residence on South Galena for six years. They are the parents of five sons and three daughters, John F. of near Dixon, Charles who resides south of Franklin Grove, Raymond of this city, Harry of near Sublette, George of Dixon, Mrs. Sarah Herbst of Nachusa, (her maternal grandmother's namesake), Mrs. Edna Barron of Dixon, and Mrs. Olive Kregger of near Harmon.

The party was in the form of a progressive dinner, followed by card games. After cocktails at Dorothy Cromwell's, the guests moved on to the home of Janice Brant for a salad course, later stopping at Jane's for the main course, before going on to Barbara Campbell's for dessert, and games.

Making up the party were Kathryn Furlong, Betty Moerschbaecher, Ruby Grimes, Dorothy Cromwell, Janice Brant, Jane Hoefer, Barbara Campbell, Lawrence Dougherty, Robert Austin, Robert Coakley, William Flanagan, George Campbell, Dick Boos, and Wilbur Hart.

Doc, I bought these teeth at a bargain but I want you to put them in!

IMAGINE the amazement of your dentist if you went to him with a set of "store teeth" you purchased at a bargain and asked him to fit them in your mouth.

Your dentist knows that your health, comfort and well-being depend upon his ability to select teeth which will exactly meet your individual requirements—perfect matching of the teeth to assure a natural appearance and expert fitting to afford satisfactory service for many years.

Neither good teeth nor good plumbing can be purchased economically "over the counter". Plumbing fixtures too, must be of assured quality, carefully selected to meet your requirements, harmoniously matched to enhance the appearance of your home and installed by experienced hands to assure health protection, satisfactory service and real economy.

Good plumbing is vital to the health of your family for it means the delivery of pure water and the safe removal of dangerous waste matter. It can mean much more than the good health of your family alone, because water contamination can endanger the health of an entire community. Good plumbing is so vital that you should be sure that your present plumbing is good.

Entrust your plumbing only to Master Plumbers. They have the knowledge, skill and experience necessary to assure safe, healthful, economical plumbing. Buy your fixtures from them. Place upon them the entire responsibility, as you would upon your dentist.

Your Master Plumber can recommend the "Standard" Plumbing Fixtures best suited for your requirements, help you plan a new bathroom, powder room or kitchen, and arrange the financing on low F.H.A. terms. And remember, "Standard" Plumbing Fixtures, sold through Master Plumbers, cost no more than others.

COURTESY IN DRIVING

The average man in his daily contacts with other members of the so-called human race is fairly polite. When he proceeds along a sidewalk he gets out of other people's way and is considerate of other people's rights and feelings. Certainly, if there is a woman in his path he doesn't barge right into her or cut across her path abruptly. But put the same fellow behind the wheel of an automobile and he becomes an entirely different sort of a person. Gone is all that natural politeness. Everything in his path becomes an object to be gotten ahead of brushed aside or hurdled. He is now a primitive sort of a savage with an overpowering urge to get some place in a hurry, regardless of the consequences. And probably when he gets there he will settle down and do nothing for hours at a time. Why is it? Maybe Dr. Wiggam over in the other column can tell us.

Our downtown streets during crowded shopping hours are no place for these fellows who always seem to be going to a fire. We will save our nerves our fenders and our bones if we can cultivate a little more patience and courtesy when we are driving in traffic. Last Saturday night the heavy traffic and the rain made conditions worse than usual and a woman driving a car tried unsuccessfully for about 15 minutes to enter First street from an alley until one driver finally realized her plight and halted his car and the traffic behind him so that she might escape. A woman pedestrian among men on the sidewalk would have no such trouble, of course. What's the matter with us, Dr. Wiggam?

"HORSE AND BUGGY SENSE"

Millions of Americans have pondered uneasily the acts and policies of government in recent years and attempted to fit them into the picture of natural welfare. The task is difficult. It requires the knowledge of the economist, psychologist, constitutional lawyer, editor, historian and humanitarian to bring the complex bits together to see what they mean. But such knowledge can be and has been combined by the national "America, Wake Up!" crusade of the Union League club of Chicago, a non-partisan, patriotic organization, founded in 1879 to foster and promote the American system of government. The result is a series of ten attractive 4-page folders issued under the general title of "Horse and Buggy Sense" each folder directed at a vital part of our national life, translated into terms of the individual.

For five months, distinguished men including nationally known figures in several lines of endeavor, have worked in the anonymity of committee membership to produce the simple truth, simply told, about the relationship of economics, politics and government.

"Horse and Buggy Sense," in plain, understandable terms, does just what its authors labored so long to do, by the much-neglected device of presenting facts. Facts pound home the truth about "You . . . and Your Job," "Facts hammer away at the subject of "You . . . and Your Wages." All the way through the ten intriguing titles, unproved theory and specious argument are avoided and dependence for conviction is based upon unvarnished truth.

What does it all lead to? The sum and substance is that regardless of the motives of present national policy, the methods are wrong. That is an inescapable conclusion. Nobody is blamed for it; nobody censured. But the voter who studies the series must conclude from the facts that the present way is the unsafe, insecure way.

And what is the remedy? The nation has already been committed to a depression-policy debt that will take more than 25 years to pay but it can protect itself by electing men to congress who will stand by the fundamentals of the American system.

The "America, Wake Up!" crusade proves its non-partisan character by advocating the re-election of senators and congressmen, regardless of party, who have proved themselves American to the core.

"Check every candidate as if you personally were hiring him, paying him and entrusting him with all you hold dear," is one bit of advice.

One fact which must sink home deeply is the revelation that 25 cents out of every dollar of the national income is appropriated for tax spenders. Interpreted into labor, this means that every citizen must give three months of his year's work to tax spenders.

And the small wage earner who thinks he escapes the burden is disillusioned by further facts. It is proved by government-supplied figures that the spenders are getting a billion and a half more out of taxpayers than the sum total of all the net reportable incomes of $5,000 a year or more, and that if people with such incomes were left without any income at all, an enormous tax burden would fall on the small-income group. In fact, seizure of all the million-dollar incomes would supply government for only one-half of a week.

"Horse and Buggy Sense" will be welcomed by many good unorganized, Americans who, standing alone, know not which way to turn to apply their individual strength and spirit to the defense of what they hold dear in democracy. The "America, Wake Up!" crusade furnishes leadership to a vast body of citizens who earnestly want to be good Americans. This series shows them how.

The "America, Wake Up!" crusade is thus doing the nation a service of incalculable value for the future—attempting to equip voters with facts and to actuate them to do their duty in the exercise of their right and responsibility to vote.

ROUNDAABOUT COMMAND

There's a notion kicking around that the characteristic behavior of a dictatorship is to go at everything the shortest and straightest way and cut all the gordian knots that may be encountered en route.

That the dictatorships have their uncharacteristic moments is suggested by a contemplated dodge of the Fascist Grand Council to hurry along the Italian birth rate.

It would seem that the easiest way, under a dictatorship, would be merely to decree that more citizens must have more children.

But what approaches now is a decree prohibiting bachelors of 25 or older to live in towns of more than 50,000 inhabitants the idea being that the town boys would rather go on being town boys than live in the country even if they have to get married to do it.

This may be a deft way of sugar-coating a pill distasteful to confirmed bachelors, but isn't there the possibility that there might be enough unmarried nature-lovers in the big towns to change some of the big towns to small towns if they all went out in the country?

But don't let it worry you. In a dictatorship the answer to all such questions is simply another decree.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

A fascinating pastime with Albert Edward Wiggam, S. Sc. Author of "THE MARKS OF A CLEAR MIND"

"The keenest anguish known to human nature is the pain of a new idea." (Bagehot). We hope this column brings you pain.

Answer to Question No. 1

1. Certainly, Discipline does not necessarily mean punishment. In the army or navy or in any business organization certain rules must be set up as the very life blood of the group. These rules discipline each person but their object is to make him secure from punishment. The same holds true for the building of character—disciplinary rules and regulations promote both security and success.

Answer to Question No. 2

2. Dad is probably wrong. First, it is doubtful that we are any smarter than the cave men although we are longer lived due to our better diet and control of disease, especially microbial diseases. The Cro-Magnon race of Western Europe, which lived about 12,000 years ago, had bigger brains than we have, and some authorities think had more brains. Furthermore, by our medicine, hygiene, diet, education, etc., we save the unit as well as the fit—and permit both to propagate and thus suspend and often counteract nature's laws. Enough evidence exists to arouse a suspicion that we may be weakening instead of strengthening the natural stamina and intelligence of the race.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. This depends partly on one's temperament and habits of thought but I think nearly all important decisions are made most wisely in the midst of activity. The circumstances and consequences are more vivid and the mind likely to be more active. The decisions of a judge, of course, must usually be made in the quiet of his chambers after going over the authorities cited by the opposing counsel, but political, military and most business and personal decisions must be made in the heat of action, and are probably wiser for that very reason.

Tomorrow: Do you act according to your feeling or reasoning? Copyright 1938, John E. Dille Co.

WASHINGTON—Under a secret plan hastily formulated in the last few days, the Government is prepared to set up a national financial control instantly upon the outbreak of war in Europe.

Made up of officials of the Treasury, SEC, and Federal Reserve Board, the new agency would assume emergency powers over all stock exchanges and banks in order to prevent a disastrous selling wave of public and private securities by foreign holders.

It is estimated that foreign holdings in U. S. stocks and bonds are between three and five billion dollars. Any large portion of this dumped on the market would blow the bottom out of prices and create havoc throughout the country.

Under the secret plan two drastic measures would be taken to forestall this: (1) temporary shutdown of all stock exchanges; (2) creation of a pool for the orderly disposal of foreign security holdings.

Now—Or Later? The trust-proofers are secretly divided on whether to launch their public expose of monopolistic practices this fall or to hold off until Congress convenes early next year.

The Justice Department and Securities-Exchange Commission are vigorously urging early action. Investigations they have undertaken are well advanced and they will be ready to hold public hearings by November 1 at the latest.

Myopic Committee

The lofty Committee on Professional Ethics and Grievances of the American Bar Association seems to be afflicted with a peculiar case of myopia—near-sightedness.

During the Ohio Republican primary, wealthy young Robert Taft filed a complaint with the Committee that his rival for the Senate, Ohio Supreme Court Judge Arthur Day, was violating Canon 30 of the ABA's code of ethics, which provides that "if a judge should decide to become a candidate for any office no judicial, he should resign in order that it cannot be said that he is using the power or prestige of his judicial position to promote his own candidacy or the success of his party."

The Committee acted with dispatch, issued a peppy report condemning Day for not resigning, ordered him to appear before it to explain his conduct. Day, ignored the Committee, but Taft made heavy political capital of the affair.

The Committee's forthright action won it much deserved kudos. Now it appears that its crusading zeal went no further than the Ohio state line.

Directly across the line in Pennsylvania, another judge is running for high office—Superior Court Judge Arthur H. James. Republican nominee for Governor. He too did not resign from the bench during the primary, and flatly refuses to do so in the current election contest.

Grievances are completely ignored. This flagrant violation of Canon 30. There is no doubt of similarity between the conduct of Day and James, but despite a steady barrage of complaints, it has steadfastly refused to take any cognizance of the case.

Irate Democrats credit its slowness to the undercover influence of Ernest Weir, head of the Weirton Steel Co., which has plants in Ohio where Weir supported Taft. In Pennsylvania Weir is a power in Republican politics with Joseph N. Pew of the Sun Oil Co. and Joseph R. Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association. SUDETEN PUTSCH PLANNED FOR MONDAY EVE FAILED

Eger, Czechoslovakia, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Sudetens Germans disclosed today they had planned a putsch against the Czechoslovak government to start immediately after Adolf Hitler's speech at Nurnburg last Monday night.

The putsch failed, however, when the government quickly put down "rebels" Monday night and Tuesday and clamped martial law on Sudeten districts.

The Sudetens said the rank and file had expected Hitler to send troops across the border after his defiant declarations. When he did not come and Sudeten leader Konrad Henlein fled to Germany, the Sudetens were left with a feeling of bewilderment and a tendency to hold Henlein responsible for bungling.

Both German non-party members and Czech residents in the Sudeten areas expressed belief the abortive putsch had not split the Sudeten party's ranks as government quarters had indicated.

Henlein, on the other side of the frontier, now is asserting his leadership again. Despite the warrant out for his arrest on treason charges, Henlein says he comes into Czechoslovakia every day and is keeping his organization alive.

The Sudeten German "free corps", organized by Henlein on the German side of the border and now said to number 10,000 attacked a Czechoslovak customs house at Neuhausen yesterday and seriously wounded at least one Czech guard.

Henlein has been reaching the masses through German radio stations and now is building a station of his own on the frontier. In addition, the Sudeten courier service which functioned between here and the reich before Henlein's flight is still operating.

These couriers, like Henlein himself, cross the frontier at night.

FANFARE

By DON DANIELSON

If the weather is fair by Friday (which seems like a silly hope to begin with) and the Rockford gridiron is dry, the Dixon high school football squad is likely to feel very uneasy. The fellows are used to nothing but mud ever since practice began. And that game at Rock Falls was plenty gooey. Coach Lindell doesn't appear any too optimistic about that Rockford affair, but you can bet the boys are getting their work outs and being groomed for a win.

Dixon high's gridders will play at Mendota on October 8 in the first conference game. Maybe the local fellas would like to know that Mendota defeated DePue 2 to 0 over the past week end. There's not much to be learned from the score, except to beware of safeties.

The greatest aggregation of negro football stars ever assembled is now working out twice a day at Soldier field in Chicago in preparation for the first All-Star contest with the Chicago Bears at Soldier field on the night of September 23. The colored athletes were chosen by a nation-wide poll conducted by 100 papers of the race and more than 3,000,000 ballots were counted with Madison Doram, a halfback at Xavier, New Orleans, high man with 508,000.

Coach Spurgeon, you know, was a scoutin' at the Rock Falls game Saturday. Rockford scribes report that Spurgeon had the highest respect for the Dixon team coached by Clem Lindell. Spurgeon, in case you've tuned in late, was the captain of the Illini last year and this is, of course, his first year with the Rabs.

Polo Community high school will open its pigskin season on Friday with a game at Mt. Carroll and Amboy will pounce against the lads at Mendota. The football world are underway and the pace gets swifter each week end. Of course if you have a favorite college alma mater which doesn't get into the thick of it until Oct. 1, you probably think all this other business is just pre-season.

The league bowling season in Dixon starts this evening when teams of the City League take the alleys at the Dixon Recreation. At 7 o'clock the Belier's Salesmen tackle the Myers' Royal Blues and the Dixon Oil Co. team clashes with Sterling 7-Ups. The schedule for 9 o'clock is: Hayden's Service vs. Boynton-Richards and Standard Oil Co. vs. Vets 1678.

Coach Driver of Oregon high school has five lettermen back for football this year and about 30 boys out for the team. All the games will be played on the field at Mt. Morris as the new field in Oregon is not in shape for this year's playing. The schedule opens Saturday when the Oregon boys face Winnemucca at Mt. Morris. On Friday, September 30, the Oregon high will play Rock Falls in a night game at Mt. Morris. Dixon defeated Rock Falls last Saturday, 6 to 0, and will be interested in the outcome of this game.

COMBINATION AT OHIO STATE MAY BRING THE TITLE

Chicago, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Sophomores and passes form a tricky combination, and in the hands of magic minded Francis Schmidt they may bring Ohio State a Big Ten football championship.

Passes, forward and lateral, have been a by-word on the Buckeye campus ever since Schmidt went there in 1934. Now it is sophomores.

Talented and numerous enough, they have caused a problem for letter winners that Schmidt may solve only by placing five of them in the starting lineup.

All are native Ohioans and outstanding among the group is Don Scott of Canton—big, fast, a good passer and a good kicker. In yesterday's workout he repeatedly drove his 200 pounds through the line for consistent gains.

Jim Sexton and Jim Langhurst also are giving lively demonstrations in the backfield. Charley Magg may be the No. 1 center choice, while Bill Nosker is a ranking contender at guard.

The sophomores and letter winners—and there are many of the latter, too—got together yesterday in a mighty practice display of ground and aerial power. Howard Wedebrook and Frank Zadworney, backs, and Wendell Lohr an end, played the leading roles among the vets.

At Iowa yesterday, Coach Irl Tibbs held his first secret drill since he became the Hawkeye coach. It was in preparation for the University of California at Los Angeles Friday night. Michigan also drilled in secret.

Scrimmages were held at Minneapolis, Chicago, Purdue and Illinois, while passing drills were on at Indiana and Northwestern. Rain cut into Wisconsin's scrimmage plans and forced a workout in the field house.

Thousand Producing Oil Wells in Little Egypt Report Shows

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 20.—(AP)—There were almost 1,000 producing oil wells in the new southern Illinois basin at the close of August, John J. Hallahan, director of registration and education, announced today.

The report, prepared by Dr. M. M. Leighton, chief of the geological survey division, listed 275 new drilling operations and a total of 150 completions during August, a new monthly record.

Since Jan. 1, 1938 producing wells had been brought in and Illinois production had increased from 1,128,000 barrels in January to about 1,900,000 barrels in August. About three fourths of the production was from the new fields.

Producing wells in the new fields, in order of their discovery, were listed as follows: Bartleson, 30; Patoka, 109; Clay City, 143; Rinard, 1; Noble, 142; Cisne, 8; Centralia, 420; Beecher City, 66; Olney, 12; Dix, 19; Aden, 3; Flora, 4; Schnell, 5; Lake Centralia, 14; Ina, 1; and North Aden, 4.

MUD, RAIN, COLD CAN'T STOP THE WOMEN GOLFERS

Chicago, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Mud, driving rain and cold penetrating wind are no barriers to courageous women golfers seeking the national championship.

Into the first 18 holes or match play over rain-drenched fairways today and a qualifying field of 64 in 2 matches at Westmoreland Country club. The field was led by two women from the opposite sides of the nation. Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page, of Chapel Hill, N. C., the defending champion, and Dorothy Traugott of San Francisco, runner-up in 1934. They finished in a deadlock for medal honors in the qualifying test yesterday with cards of 80, one over par.

Mrs. Page, a plump lady, 31 years old, was the only one of 107 starters to break par. She clipped a stroke off the par 40 bracket nine on one of the most brutal days in which the national event has been contested. The twind and rain, the soggy fairways and the tricky greens, skyrocketed the scoring.

Even the famed Patty Berg of Minneapolis, discovered that 14 clubs and a pair of rain trousers which she pulled over her divided skirt were not enough to cope with par. She finished with an 85, two strokes back of Marion Miley, Lexington, Ky., a three-time winner of the western women's championship.

Today's first round, starting at 11:30 A. M. was loaded with potential thrills. The defending title, Mrs. Page, plays Mrs. Eric Phillips of Lambton Mills, Ont., in the opener, while Miss Berg engages Mrs. Myron Davy of Washington, D. C. Miss Traugott plays Miss Lillian Zech of Chicago.

Two 18 hole rounds will be played tomorrow, the eight survivors battling through 18 holes Thursday. The winners will meet in Friday's 18 hole semi-finals. Saturday's championship match will be 36 holes.

Illini Captain

CAPT. JAMES W. McDONALD-CENTER

"Just a plain, ordinary swell fellow."

That's the way friends, coaches, and teammates characterize Jim McDonald, captain and center of the 1938 University of Illinois football team.

Jim, who won his letter last year by playing three full games, 48 minutes against Notre Dame, and 49 minutes against Indiana, was a dark horse at the beginning of the season but made a dramatic rise to the captaincy. After winning his numerals as a freshman, he lost an opportunity to play as a sophomore when he injured his thumb while working in an ice plant.

But in spring practice in 1937, Coach Bob Zupke, looking for a replacement for the graduating Captain El Sayre, moved him from tackle to center and liked his performance in the pivot spot.

That he was able to play as a regular throughout his junior year, win his letter, and be elected captain is a tribute to his outstanding ability, sportsmanship, and leadership.

His election as captain entitled him to wear the white sweater traditionally awarded to team leaders. But Jim, who had not had a chance to win a letter the year before because of his injury, looked on longingly as his teammates were given the customary blue ones.

"I like this white sweater fine," he said hesitatingly. "But I never had a blue one." He got both.

McDonald is the second football captain in four years from Douglas county, just below Champaign county. Charles Galbreath, captain in 1935, came from Tuscola, while McDonald attended the first six grades at Arcola, just eight miles south, before moving to Champaign to live with a married sister.

The new captain was recognized as one of the best centers in the middle west last year. The Illini coaches don't think there was a better pivot man in the Big Ten. First of all, Jim meets the prime requirement for a center admirably—he is an accurate and deft passer. Backing up the line on defense, McDonald is a bulwark of strength. He is as fast as you can expect a lineman to be and is a consistent and deadly tackler. Against Notre Dame, in the celebrated 0-0 game last October, his hard tackling caused frequent fumbling in the Irish backfield.

Jim is easy to coach, easy to get along with, and a courageous fighter, his coaches say. He prepped for a berth on the Illinois squad by leading the Champaign high school eleven in 1935, when he was named All-State tackle.

Senior in the college of commerce and majoring in general business, McDonald's scholastic record is well above average, despite the fact that he has to work to earn part of his expenses.

Well built, husky, and quiet McDonald is 21 years old, 6 feet 11 inch tall, and weighs 190 pounds. Although he doesn't have time for other school sports, he enjoys hunting and fishing.

WEATHER HELPS PIRATES ON WAY TO PENNANT WIN

Yanks Drop 13-1 Decision To the St. Louis Club Yesterday

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

Like the famous ill wind, the Pittsburgh Pirates would have you believe it's an ill rain that helps no one's pennant prospects.

The entire National League program of four doubleheaders was rained right off the 1938 program yesterday and that, in its way, was somewhat more important than any of the three games played in the American League.

While the league leading Pirates were deprived of a chance to improve their record at the expense of the Phillies, they marked up two games that can't be lost and two pieces that their rivals, the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds, can't win. They now have 14 to go and Chicago and Cincinnati 13 apiece.

Thus the standing of the pennant contenders looks like this:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.	Be'd	Play
Pittsburgh	81	57	.587
Chicago	78	61	.561	3 1/2
Cincinnati	75	62	.551
New York	75	64	.540	6 1/2
Boston	69	69	.500	12
St. Louis	67	72	.482	14 1/2
Philadelphia	44	93	.321	36 1/2
Brooklyn	63	75	.457	18

If any of these three rivals should succeed in winning all its 13 games—and nothing appears more unlikely in view of the clubs' recent records—the Pirates would need only eight victories to displace the Giants, ten to eliminate the Reds or eleven to remain ahead of the Cubs.

Lead Looks Bigger

In other words, the nearer they come to the end of the season, whether they play or not, the bigger that 3 1/2 game lead looks.

And to make it more formidable, after the four game series with Brooklyn, that opens today, the Bucs play their remaining games against Cincinnati and Chicago. For practical purposes, every one of those games counts double in increasing or decreasing a lead.

On the ball field, yesterday's outstanding development was one of the most thorough lickings the champion Yankees have taken all season.

After clinching the pennant Sunday, with the aid of the weather, the Yanks dropped a 13-1 decision to the St. Louis Browns. Lou Gehrig played only an inning to preserve his consecutive game record and the rest of the regulars might as well have left with him. They got only six hits off Howard Mills while the Browns nipped Wes Ferrell for four runs in the first two innings then cut loose with eight in the fifth.

Indians Still Fighting

Cleveland's Indians still trying for second place, picked up a half game on the idle Boston Red Sox when they made four hits good for a 4-3 victory over the Athletics. Jeff Heath's homer accounted for three runs. Washington's five hit flinging and Hank Greenberg's chances of beating Babe Ruth's home run record were further weakened when he was held to a single.

Fish Story With Proof

Here's a fisherman's yarn with the proof in black and white. Dr. L. R. Evans of Dixon is pictured above with the northern pike he hauled out of Rock river recently. The game fish was 38 inches long and weighed 14 pounds. Dr. Evans made the catch on a six ounce fly rod near Whirlpool rock just west of Grand Detour. Fishermen in this neck of the woods declare that this is, to their knowledge, the largest game fish ever caught in these parts. Large catfish have been taken out of the river, but no game fish as large as this.

Cubs, Pirates Face
Two Doubleheaders

New York, Sept. 20.—(AP)—For the second straight day rain washed out the entire National League schedule today and further complicated the race for the right to meet the New York Yankees in the World Series.

Postponement of today's games calls for the pace-setting Pirates and the second-place Cubs to play successive double-headers at Brooklyn and Philadelphia, respectively, tomorrow and Thursday. Weather permitting the third-place Reds and the Giants, 6 and 1/2 games off the pace, also tangle in a double header bill tomorrow.

Since the Dodgers and Cubs have an off day Friday, Larry MacPhail, general manager of the Brooklyn club, offered Chicago a chance to play off their double-header, postponed yesterday, at Ebbets field. Manager Gabby Hartnett, however, today said the Cubs would not play the games since they open a three-game stand at home against the Cardinals Saturday.

Additional rain probably will mean the cancellation of games as the contending clubs are booked almost solidly from now until the end of the season, Oct. 2.

In the column to the right of land or lot description under the heading of "Tax" is shown the amount of delinquent tax due as taken from the Collector's Books.

In addition to the amount of tax set against each description, the Statute provides the following costs and penalties are due thereon: Advertising and judgment costs, 16c on each lot numbered in a description and 26c on each acre tract. On the first installment and personal property tax: After June 1st one per cent of the tax as interest and each month thereafter an additional one per cent interest. On the second installment: After September 1st one per cent of the tax as interest and each month thereafter an additional one per cent interest. Also 20c for registered notice on each tract or lot.

Also included in this list is the Forfeited Tax due upon lands and lots ordered sold by unexecuted judgments and orders of sale previously entered, and is shown directly under the 1937 Delinquent General Tax, and is for the years so stated. In addition to the amount of Forfeited Tax so listed, there is due costs and interest upon said amounts as provided by Statute.

Also is the list, directly following the delinquent list, of all taxes paid under protest.

Application for Judgement and order for sale of 1937 Delinquent General Taxes on all tracts of land and lots, due and unpaid as hereinafter described, together with penalties, interest and costs due thereon, and for a judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, will be made in the Probate term of the County Court of Lee County, Illinois, on the 30th day of September, A. D. 1938.

FOURTH 'PURGE' ATTEMPT TO BE DECIDED TODAY

New York Voters Pass on President's Effort to Beat O'Connor

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. The success or failure of presidential efforts to defeat Chairman John J. O'Connor of the house rules committee was being determined today by voters of New York City's east side tenements and penthouses.

O'Connor, whom Roosevelt termed recently "one of the most effective obstructionists" in the house, sought both Democratic and Republican nominations for a ninth term.

The double contest was about the only one giving national aspect to today's primaries in New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts and Wisconsin. It was the president's fourth—and final—attempts in this year's primaries to unseat lawmakers whom he called conservatives. He lost Democratic senatorial battles in South Carolina, Georgia and Maryland.

James H. Fay, supported by Roosevelt, was O'Connor's Democratic opponent. No matter who wins that nomination, Fay's name will be on the November ballot as candidate of the American Labor party. Running against O'Connor on the Republican ticket was Allen Dulles, former state department aide.

O'Connor kept one of the key men of the house because the rules committee decides whether to give major legislation the right-of-way to the floor.

New York will not select senatorial candidates until party conventions next week. Both the state's senatorial seats are at stake: the term of Senator Wagner expires and the death of Senator Copeland created a vacancy.

Wisconsin and New Jersey voters, however, were choosing senatorial nominees today. Senator F. Ryan Duffy was unopposed for Democratic renomination in the former state, but there were contests on the Republican and Progressive tickets.

In New Jersey William H. Ely was the only Democratic candidate for the seat of Senator John Milton, who decided not to run again. Former Senator W. Warburton had two opponents on the Republican ballot.

Two governors—Philip La Follette (Prog-Wis) and Charles F. Hurley (D-Mass)—had primary opposition.

Voters in the four states were choosing nominees for 52 house seats in the last primaries of the season. Nominations for 11 house seats are yet to be made in various state conventions.

SCOTT FIELD TO BE BRAIN PLANT FOR AIR FORCE

Belleville, Ill., Sept. 20.—As European war clouds fill the world today, Uncle Sam is turning Scott Field, his most interior air station, into a new nerve center and "brain factory" for a big part of his fighting forces in the air.

The new day dawned for Scott Field, 750 miles from the Atlantic ocean, last July when the war department announced it was shifting its headquarters staff here from Langley Field Va.

Transformation of what was an empty nest for blimps into the head station of the "GHQ" air force is under way now.

There will not be many additional planes at the field. The increase will be in officer population. But the field is going to be nearly remade. The big helium plant and the $1,250,000 dirigible hangar are going to the wreckers. The mile-square field is being enlarged and criss-crossed by eight concrete runways. New hangars for airplanes are going up and a new brick city for officers is being laid out.

The cost to the WPA, PWA and the war department is placed at around $7,000,000.

When will the army's new inland air capital be finished? The best guess in army circles is some time next summer.

Scott Field is located a few miles southeast of Belleville and 23 miles from metropolitan St. Louis. It was established in 1917, closed after the World War, and reopened in 1920 as a $5,000,000 army base for lighter-than-air craft. Big dirigibles rarely tied up there, however.

The last two dirigibles at the field were decommissioned in May, 1937. A few months later the army turned over to the navy its last non-rigid blimps, three from Scott Field.

The Thousand Islands Bridge authority has announced at Alexandria Bay, N. Y., that more than 8000 cars passed over the new bridge during the first four days of its operation. Tolls totaled about $10,000.

More than 23,000 of the 40,000 persons killed in traffic accidents last year lost their lives after sunset.

Five cars in the last Indianapolis Speedway race burned alcohol instead of regular gasoline.

Where Peacemakers Seek Ballot Instead of Bullets

By NEA Service

Dark-shaded on the map above, and dark in its menace to European peace, is the fringe on the north, west, and south borders of Czechoslovakia. In that area the population is largely of German blood.

It is in this darkened region that a plebiscite is being sought. Czech consent is asked by peacemakers to a proposal that if the people of these areas vote to detach themselves from the rest of the country and join the German Austrians, that they be allowed to do so peacefully. This plan is complicated by the fact that there are patchy areas far in the interior of Czechoslovakia which also are largely German. Taking their name from the Sudetic Mountains of the north border, these "Sudeten Germans" are the minority problem, failure to solve which will almost surely involve Europe in war.

The map itself shows this racial conflict, for notice that the names on it are Czech names, yet almost every town has also a German name; Eger, where conflict between Sudetens and Czech authorities has already taken place, is shown as Cheb above. Aussing, another turbulent area, is shown as Usti. Pilsen is Plzen, Prague is Praha, Karlsbad is Karlovy Vary, Marienbad is Mariánské Lázně, Brunn is Brno, Pressburg is Bratislava, and so on.

Bloodshed and violence has already swept this border area as Sudetens paraded, demonstrated, and staged disorderly scenes. Czech police who tried to put down the rioting were attacked, and Czech troops began to be brought up. Thus an "incident" is in the making which Hitler might readily use as justification to invade Czechoslovakia to protect residents of German blood.

Then the darkened border areas would also be the arena in which the first victims of the war would die, though the real military defense lines, after the border forts were crushed, lie along three parallel lines crossing the country at Prague and then successively farther east.

The Marines on the Job in Shanghai

The fighting has died down in Shanghai, but the U. S. Marines still have to assert their authority once in a while to preserve the peace. The Yankee Devil Dogs are pictured above as they disarmed a member of the Japanese army special service bureau and dumped him in a marine car after he and two of his fellow officers sought to terrorize Chinese in the U. S. defense sector of Shanghai's International Settlement. Note that the marine at the left, pointing the machine gun, is taking no chances of anything going wrong.

PICTURES ENJOYED

Luther Durkes entertained the senior class of the Community high school with motion pictures which he had taken while on his recent trip to Yellowstone Park, Black Hills and other places of interest. When we say the pictures are excellent and very entertaining we know, for Luther very kindly came to our home recently and afforded us the same pleasure.

FOUNDATION ENDANGERED

Decatur, Ill., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Bishop Ernest Lynn Waldorf urged Methodists yesterday to raise $150,000 to clear indebtedness on the Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois.

Addressing the closing session of the 115th annual Illinois Methodist conference, Bishop Waldorf said that continuation of the foundation's work beyond this year was contingent on retirement of the debt.

HOLLYWOOD NEWLYWEDS

Hollywood, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The movie town has two pairs of newlyweds today—Genevieve Tobin and William Keighley, Shirley Ross and Ken Dolan.

Miss Tobin, blonde actress, and Keighley, a director, were married last night in Las Vegas, Nev.

Miss Ross, movie singer, and Dolan, actors' agent, also were married in Las Vegas yesterday.

Predictions for the immediate flying future are 100-ton flying boats crossing the Atlantic in 20 hours. It is expected that they will be too large for manual control by the pilot and will require mechanically operated controls.

As of July 1, 1938, there were 2364 airports and landing fields in the U. S., and of these 17 were partially or fully lighted for night use.

LABOR LEADER'S DEATH IN SAINT LOUIS A MYSTERY

Colorful and Turbulent Career of Schading Ended by Foes

St. Louis, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Police sought today to find in the colorful, turbulent career of Arthur C. Schading a clue to the slayers of the 51-year-old St. Louis labor leader.

Schading, militant business agent for local No. 1 of the AFL-affiliated electrical workers union, was shot to death last night as he left the union headquarters.

Detectives Sergeant William Greenspan said the labor official was slain by two men who apparently waited for him to leave a union conference. As Schading, accompanied by John Thompson, a union member, turned to lock the door, two men bracketed him.

While one shoved him, the other fired more than a dozen shots point blank. The pair then fled on foot. Eleven bullet wounds were found in the labor agent's body.

Thompson, who was unharmed, told police: "I couldn't do a thing."

A bitter fight has centered about Schading within his union for more than a year. In addition, he figured in an intense jurisdictional dispute with the sign hangers union and recently has been at odds with the teamsters union over servicing of electric phonographs.

Had Been Suspended. Schading's election as business agent marked the end of a 5-year suspension for "dishonorable conduct." The charges were brought to the attention of the international union by a group of electrical contractors who disclosed the business agent had set up an outside organization with the alleged purpose of charging them two cents an hour for each journeyman in their employ.

The labor leader often had been questioned in connection with acts of violence. Police records show he was arrested 21 times in the last 11 years. Seven arrests were for traffic violations while most of the other 14 were investigations.

In October, 1937, he was indicted for attempted extortion, but later was acquitted.

David A. Jones, president of the electrical workers union and a leader of a faction opposed to Schading, told police he had "no idea of what could have been the cause of the attack on Mr. Schading."

Schading had $107.85 in his pockets when he was slain.

DUE FOR SURPRISE. Iowa City, Ia., Sept. 20.—(AP)—The thief who stole four suits of clothes, including a tuxedo, from a local cleaning establishment is due for a surprise when he tries on the clothing. All of the suits belonged to the same man, a cripple, whose left leg is shorter than the right one.

CANDID SALESMAN. Philadelphia, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Uncle Sam is a candid salesman. A notation on a batch of 62 musical instruments offered for sale at the Philadelphia navy yard informed prospective buyers: "Not in very good condition—would cost more to repair than to replace."

DR. W. E. BUEHLER DEAD. Chicago.—(AP)—Dr. William E. Buehler, 69, former Supreme Dictator of the Loyal Order of Moose, died suddenly of a heart attack yesterday.
